

CONTRACT FOR ELECTRIC SERVICE

THIS AGREEMENT entered into this the 13 day of Oct. 1924, between the Temple Lumber Company, Hemphill, Texas (hereinafter called the Company) and Sabine County, Texas (hereinafter called the consumer).

WITNESSETH: The Company agrees in consideration of the mutual promise and agreements herein contained and to be performed, to provide and deliver subject to the conditions and agreements of this contract, and the Consumer agrees to receive and pay for the electric current to be used at Court House Jail for general purposes, at the rates and under each and all of the particular conditions hereinafter set forth.

Meters are to be read, and bills are to be rendered and paid monthly. The gross rate per kilowatt hour for monthly current consumption shall be as follows: Bills for service rendered shall be due and payable at the Company's office within the first ten days after date of bill.

It is understood and agreed that a maximum monthly charge of seven dollars for each separate month shall be paid by the consumer covering readiness to serve expenses, but if the quantity of electricity consumed during each month shall amount to said sum at the net rates herein specified, then no readiness to serve charge will be made.

The Consumer agrees to abide by and conform to the reasonable rules and regulations of the Company as now or as may hereafter be established, and in general use for governing service to installations similar to that herein covered.

It is agreed between the parties hereto that electric current is sold under this contract, subject not only to the provisions and agreements provided herein, but also to the provisions and agreements printed on the back hereof, which are a part of this contract and shall be as effective as though fully set forth on the face hereof.

This agreement between the parties hereto shall be in effect from its date and in case all agreements and promise of the Consumer herein contained are fulfilled, shall remain in force for a period of one year from date of approval, and it is further understood and agreed that this contract shall be deemed to be renewed for a further period of one year unless either party shall within this said time give thirty days written notice to the other party of desire to have the service discontinued. In this event both parties hereby agree that the service shall be discontinued at the time set out in the notice to discontinue service.

It is finally agreed that all terms and stipulations heretofore made or agreed to by the parties in relation to said electric service are merged in this contract, and that no previous representations or agreements made by the Company's officers or agents shall be binding upon the Company except as and to the extent contained herein.
