

The State of Texas
County of Sabine

In the commissioners' court of Sabine County, Texas, at a regular term of said County, with all the members thereof present, on this 9th day of December, 1929, came on to be considered the matter of making provision for the payment of repairs to the courthouse and Jail of said County.

And it appearing to the court that this Court has decided to construct permanent repairs to the Courthouse and Jail of Sabine County, and that it is contemplated that a portion of the cost thereof, will be paid by taxation from taxes of future years.

It is therefore ordered, by the commissioners' court, of Sabine County, Texas, that to pay for the construction of repairs to the Courthouse and Jail of said County, there shall be and there is hereby levied a tax against the Constitutional 25% permanent Improvement Fund of said County upon all taxable property in said County, sufficient to pay the interest on all of the indebtedness that may be incurred on the construction of such improvements, and to create a sinking fund sufficient to pay the principal as it matures; and to pay the interest on such indebtedness and to provide for the payment of one year's Pro rata part of the principal thereof, there is hereby levied upon all taxable property, in said county for the years 1930, and for each succeeding year while such indebtedness or any part thereof, as is outstanding, a tax of eight cents on each $100 valuation of taxable property in said County, and the same shall be assessed and collected, or so much thereof, as may be necessary for said purpose, and so much more, if any, as may be necessary for said purpose, and applied to the purpose named, It is expressly ordered, however, that only so much of said tax as may be necessary for said purpose is appropriated by this tax levy, and that any balance is subject to the further orders, of this court.
