On this the 25th day of September, 1975, the Honorable Commissioner's Court met in special session with the following members present, to-wit:

The Court met with representatives of the firm of Page, Southerland & Page concerning plans for a new County Jail and the possibility of a loan from the Economic Development Administration. It was learned that this type of loan, due to its limitations, was not feasible. Mr. Carlisle, who represented the firm at this meeting, recommended that the County not use this loan to finance the building of a County Jail. The Court was in agreement with the recommendation.

There being no further business, the Court adjourned.
