PROCLAMATION

The fourth week in April is being observed nationally as "Keep America Beautiful Week" as stated in an Official Memorandum from Governor Mark White.

THEREFORE, I, ROYCE C. SMITH, COUNTY JUDGE of SABINE COUNTY, TEXAS do hereby PROCLAIM and DESIGNATE the month of April, 1983 as

YOUTH ACTIVITY MONTH

in Sabine County, Texas, and particularly, April 17 - 23, 1983, as a special week set aside in keeping with

KEEP AMERICA BEAUTIFUL WEEK

I call attention to all citizens in our county, including the Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, 4-H Clubs, Future Farmers of America, Future Homemakers of America, Student Councils in school and Ecology Clubs to actively undertake community cleanup and beautification projects during the month of April, 1983.

These youth groups will be working throughout Texas in preparation for a climatic "cleanup and beautification" celebration during the week of April 17 - 23. Wholesome surroundings and clean living conditions are important to the general health and welfare of our citizens.

IN OFFICIAL RECOGNITION WHEREOF, I hereby affix my signature this 28th day of March, 1983.

ROYCE C. SMITH,
COUNTY JUDGE, SABINE COUNTY, TEXAS
