Commissioner Lynn Smith made motion to approve written reports. Motion seconded by Commissioner Keith Clark, and motion carried.

Charles Craig, a resident of Delta Heights, had questions concerning roads in that subdivision. He feels they should be in better condition. Judge Hyden asked that he give the Court 60 to 90 days to get these roads repaired. Mr. Craig agreed.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Werner, residents of Sam Rayburn Estates, met with the Court concerning a road off County Line Road- They stated this road is used for nothing but a dumping ground for trash. No action was taken, but Commissioner White will check with the Corp of Engineers since this road belongs to them.

Although this was not on the agenda, the Court agreed on a division of Road and Bridge funds for 1993-1994. This can come under General Business. Commissioner Smith made the motion to divide funds as follows: Prct. # 1 - 23%; Prct. # 2 - 25%
Prct. # 3 - 25% Prct. # 4 - 27%
Commissioner White seconded. It was a tie vote, with Commissioner Smith and White voting for, and Commissioners Cox and Clark voting against.

After discussion, Commissioners White, Cox, and Smith voted for, and Commissioner Clark voted against.

Then Commissioner Keith Clark asked that they vote again, and make it unanimous. So motion carried, with all voting for.

Motion made by Commissioner Cox to remove bo-mag from table. Commissioner White seconded. Motion failed with Commissioner Cox and White voting for; Commissioner Clark and Smith against.

Judge Larry Hyden advised the Commissioners Court of the current situation regarding bo-mag lease, and has stated to the best of his ability the statue of government of same. He stated upon being advised, it was majority opinion of court to leave motion tabled pending further study.
