Judge Hyden called the Special Called Meeting to order at 1:30 P.M. He stated that proper notice has been posted and at the present time only two members of the court are present therefore not constituting a quorum.

This meeting will stand in recess until a quorum is present, and at that time we will reconvene.

The purpose of this meeting today was for a Pre-Proposal meeting with the Texas Department of Transportation and all interested Architectural firms regarding the Courthouse renovation project under the ISTEA grant that has been awarded to this County.

At this time we stand in recess and the Texas Department of Transportation Officials will take charge of any questions and dealings with the Architects that are present.
