AMENDED RESOLUTION

Sale of Fireworks

WHEREAS, the Commissioner's Court currently allows the sale of fireworks to the public in Sabine County by retail firework permit holders during the US Independence Day and the New Year holidays; and

WHEREAS, the Commissioner's Court did, pursuant to a Resolution on February 13, 2017, to extend permit sale of fireworks for periods of Texas Independence Day, San Jacinto Day, and Memorial Day; and

WHEREAS, House Bill 554 was signed into law by the Governor and took affect May 1st, 2025; and

WHEREAS, House Bill 554 authorizes a county Commissioner's Court to allow, by order, retail fireworks permit holders to sell fireworks in the county to the public during additional time periods and holidays; and

WHEREAS, House Bill 554 grants Commissioners' Court the authority to suspend and prohibit the usage of fireworks in times of drought: and

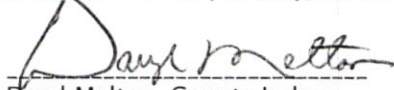

WHEREAS, that retail firework permit holders are only permitted to sell fireworks in Sabine County, Texas during the periods pursuant to Texas Occupations Code Section 2154.202

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE COUNTY OF SABINE THAT:

1. The Sabine County Commissioners' Court hereby permits the sale of fireworks to the public by retail fireworks permit holder on the following dates:
 - a. Beginning May 1 through midnight May 5 for the Cinco de Mayo firework season; and
 - b. Beginning June 14 through midnight June 19 for the Juneteenth firework season

The Commissioner's Court of Sabine County may, at any time during periods prohibit the sale of fireworks if the Texas Forest Service Drought Index indicates that Sabine County is in a period of drought and the discharge of fireworks would pose a fire hazard to the community.

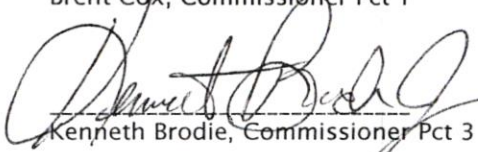

SIGN this 13th day of July, 2026.
